

Student assistants needed

The Institute of Social and Cultural Anthropology of the Faculty of Social Sciences is searching for Student assistants

for the period from July 2018 to February 2019 (8 months) for 20 or 40 hours per month to support the evaluation of the postdoc-fellowship-program „Knowledge for Tomorrow – Cooperative Research Projects in Sub-Saharan Africa“ (Volkswagen Foundation).

Your tasks include the following responsibilities:

- transcribe interviews (language: English)
- prepare, conduct, and evaluate an online survey
- code and evaluate interviews with the qualitative analysis program MAXDA

We expect very good knowledge of English and a study period of at least two semesters. Both students in bachelor and master are welcome.

Having experience in quantitative surveys and qualitative analysis software will be appreciated.

Please send your application to Valerie Liebs via E-Mail (vliebs@uni-goettingen) until 3rd of June 2018. Please include an overview of your curricular activities such as seminars etc. (if possible as FlexNow extract).
