

Application for the Master's Degree programme in Modern Indian Studies at the Faculty of Social Science

Application deadline

The "Modern Indian Studies" Master's degree programme starts only in winter semesters.

All required documents must be uploaded by 15 May.

Exceptions:

The proofs of language proficiency can be handed in by 30 September.

*If there is a free study place after the application deadline you could apply for via the lottery procedure.
The application date for the lottery procedure is probably the 1 to 5 October in winter.*

How to apply?

Step 1: Online application

The link (on this website on the right side above) to the online portal is only available during the application period!

Which data should be enter in the online portal?

- Name
- Adresse
- Credits
- Self-chosen password. This is required for uploading files and the subsequent enrollment.

What's next?

Step 2: Upload of the documents

Each applicant gets a unique application number after having registered successfully via online application portal. You need this application number to correspond with us in an easy way. After the registration the applicants receive a link for uploading all their documents.

Which documents should be uploaded?

- Personally signed application for admission for the respective programme (you can download the form on our website)
- Graduation certificate(s) (if necessary a certified German or English translation)
- Transcript of records including the overall average grade
- Short CV written in English
- Letter of motivation (max. 2 pages) explaining your interest in applying for admission to this Master's degree programme
- Proof of English language proficiency (<http://www.uni-goettingen.de/en/150727.html>)

All necessary application documents have to be uploaded by the dates mentioned otherwise the application cannot be taken into account.

You will be informed in writing as to admission or denial after the procedure has been finished.

Please check the FAQ.

If you have any questions concerning the application, please contact the Office of the Dean of Studies:

Martin Ertelt
Platz der Göttinger Sieben 3
37073 Göttingen

Tel. +49 551 39 19730

Fax. +49 551 39 19827

Martin.Ertelt-1@sowi.uni-goettingen.de

Office: Room Oec 1.129
(appointment upon consultation)

or studiendekanat@sowi.uni-goettingen.de