

MODERN SOUTH ASIAN HISTORY RESEARCH SEMINAR

Summer Semester 2018

Contact: IndianHistory.CeMIS@sowi.uni-goettingen.de

Venue: CeMIS board room, Waldweg 26

24 April, 16:15 - 17:45 Special Lecture

Senthil Babu (French Institute of Pondicherry): How can we do History of Science and History of Labour together in India?

5 June, 16:15 - 17:45 Special Lecture

Prasannan Parthasarathi (Boston College): Labor and Environment in Nineteenth-Century Tamilnad

12 June, 16:15 - 18:15 CeMIS Research in Progress

Rohan Mathews: Construction Workers and Real Estate: A Survey of Case Law and Legal Developments

Sebastian Schwecke: Work in the Bazaar: The Organisation of Work in a Social Milieu beyond State Regulation: India, 1930s to 2000s

18:30 - 20:00 Special Lecture

Ali Raza (Leibniz Zentrum Modern Orient, Berlin): Revolutionary Dreams and Revolutionary Lives in South Asia, c. 1910s - 1950s

19 June, 16:15 - 17:15 CeMIS Research in Progress

Martin Christof-Füchsle: German Writings on the Mysore Wars of the Eighteenth Century: Three Perspectives

17:30 - 19:00 Special Lecture

Indivar Kamtekar (Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi): War Mobilisation: the Colonial State and the Independent State in India

26 June, 16:15 - 20:00 CeMIS Research in Progress

Bhaswati Bhattacharya: Coffee Marketing and Consumption in South India, 1900-1940

Razak Khan: Archive of Ideas: Rethinking Translation as Entangled Intellectual History

Catharina Hänsel: Trusteeship of Welfare? Business and Universal Basic Income in India

3 July, 16:15 - 20:00 CeMIS Research in Progress

Michaela Dimmers: Guarded by Convicts: Convict Officers in Colonial Central Jails of the North-Western Provinces

Vidhya Raveendranathan: Masula Boatmen and the Production of the Urban Coast in Nineteenth Century Madras

Svenja von Jan: Hamburg-Indian Entanglements in British Archives