

KOREA UNIVERSITY (KU)

General Information and Reputation: prestigious private research university located primarily in Seoul, South Korea, and one of the SKY universities, a historical acronym used in South Korea to refer to Seoul National University, Korea University, and Yonsei University. Founded in 1905, the university is one of the oldest institutions of higher education in South Korea. KU was ranked 191st in the world in 2010 by QS World University Rankings. (Wikipedia)

International Students: the academic year runs from March to December, and is made up of two terms at KU. The terms are approximately 14 weeks long. International students have a choice of three study periods:

Full academic year: March ~ December

Spring semester: March ~ June

Fall Semester: September ~ December

The list of courses offered in English is updated and available for you to check online from mid-December for the spring semester and mid-May for the fall semester on <http://www.korea.edu>
> Academics > Courses

For information on application please visit http://oia.korea.ac.kr/listener.do?layout=student_1_1

KU Graduate School of International Studies <http://gsis.korea.ac.kr/index.html>

Established in 1991, the Graduate School of International Studies (GSIS) in Korea University is a leading academic institution in educating and nurturing young experts specialized in international affairs. The primary goal of GSIS is to educate and train specialists in international affairs equipped with a comprehensive understanding of important theoretical tools and current economic, political, social, developmental & environmental issues. GSIS offers specializations in International Commerce, International Development & Cooperation, International Peace & Security, Regional Studies, and Korean Studies.

For courses offered please visit <http://gsis.korea.ac.kr/curriculum/offerings.html>

Department of Economics: <http://econ.korea.ac.kr/>

The department's goal is to produce "economic professionals who can efficiently apply economic knowledge and skills to the ever-changing real world". For class schedule please visit the department's homepage

KU Business School: <http://biz2.korea.ac.kr/>

Korea University Business School (KUBS) is the first and only school in Korea to be accredited by both AACSB and EQUIS and seeks to educate students and managers to become global business leaders, to create and disseminate cutting-edge management knowledge and skills and to offer professional services to the national and international community. KUBS offers an MBA program as well as Master of Science (M.S.) programs in each functional area of business education (Specific Majors: International Business Management & Strategy, International Marketing, International Finance / Banking, International Trade / Industry) and 65% of its classes are taught in English