

Delegation from Nanjing Business School visits Göttingen

(24.10. – 28.10.2016)

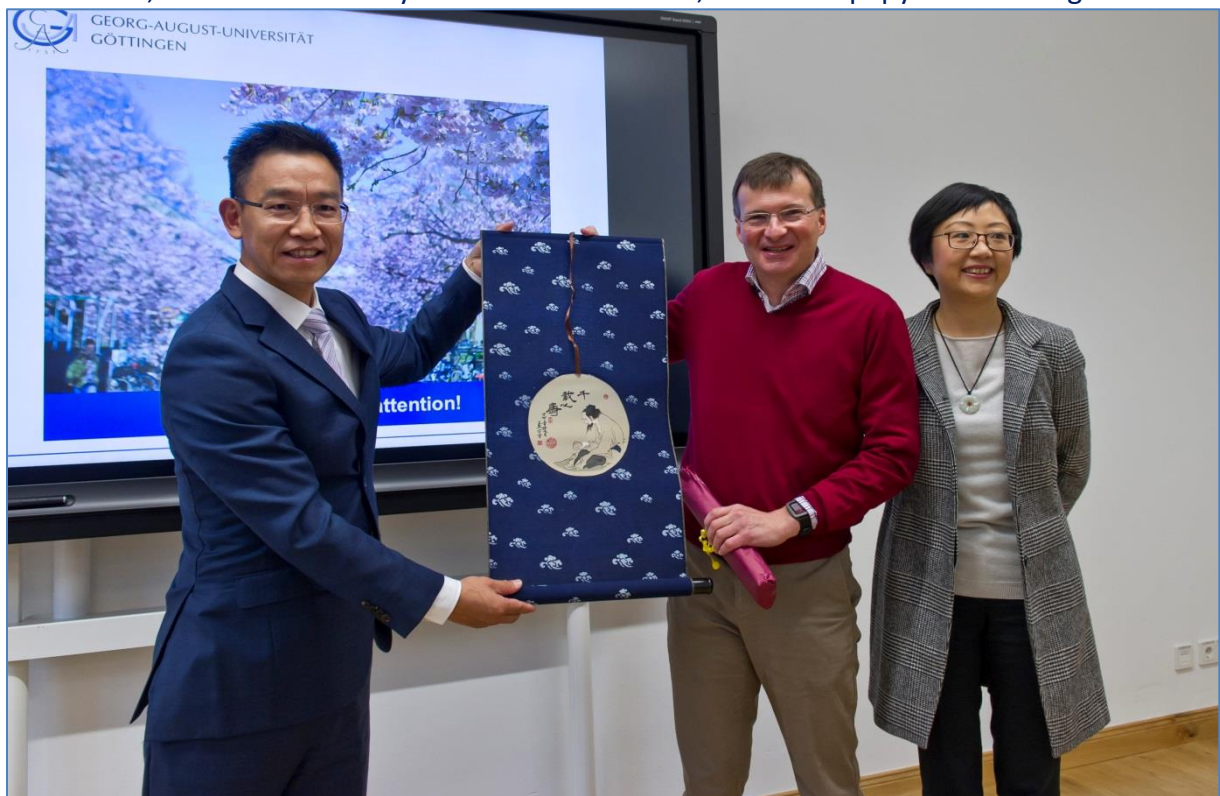

This October the Chair of HRM and Asian Business welcomed a group of EMBA students led by Prof. Wenhong Zhang from Nanjing University's Business School. The visit is a token of the strengthened ties and the close friendship between Nanjing University's Business School and University of Göttingen's Department of Business Administration. The EMBA students attended a one-week study trip with a particular focus on global leadership. The curriculum encompassed insightful lectures on global leadership, company visits at Sartorius AG and Volkswagen AG and a joint workshop with German managers and German students enrolled in Göttingen's master program in management. In addition to the curricular activities, the students explored sights central to the history of the University of Göttingen, e.g. the old university prison (Karzer), and the region of Southern Lower Saxony, e.g. Burg Hardenberg.

Impressions:

Prof. Froese welcomes our guests to Göttingen

Prof. Kolbe, dean of the Faculty of Economic Sciences, receives a papyrus roll as a gift

Visit at Sartorius AG together with German management students

Workshop keynote by Prof. Cooke (Monash University)

Nanjing EMBA students and German management students working in groups

Joint presentation of work group results

Farewell dinner at Burg Hardenberg

