

INFORMATION SHEET FOR INCOMING APPLICANTS

For applicants who are interested in the Erasmus Mundus External Cooperation Window LOT 13 – India project at the Georg-August-University Göttingen, the following information is given below:

Participating faculties

To view a list of all participating study opportunities of the respective faculties in the bachelor's programme, check this link: <http://www.uni-goettingen.de/en/3811.html>

Please note that all undergraduate programmes are taught in German and if you would like to participate as an exchange student a certificate of language skills is required. A statement given by your home institution is sufficient, but please notes that for degree seeking students an internationally recognized language test is required.

For international master and PhD programmes, see this link: <http://www.uni-goettingen.de/en/46551.html>. For English taught programmes language requirements for proof of English skills are needed.

*If you wish to apply for a complete master or PhD programme you have to fulfil all entry requirements of the programme. Parallel to this you have to apply for the Erasmus Mundus scholarship.

Dates and Deadlines

Dates and deadlines for the start of the academic year are listed here:

<http://www.uni-goettingen.de/en/47743.html>

Accommodation and living costs

Information on accommodation can be found under <http://www.uni-goettingen.de/en/67116.html> or for those who would like to live in a student's dormitory visit this link: <http://www.studentenwerk-goettingen.de/index.php?id=70&L=1>. And of course we are supporting all our scholarship holders in finding an accommodation.

Living costs per month are approximately Euro 600,- .

For additional information about Göttingen and the university in general just check this link: <http://www.uni-goettingen.de/en/48483.html>

In this sense, we wish you the best and are awaiting your arrival in Göttingen!