

Grzegorz Mania graduated from the Jagiellonian University in Krakow (Faculty of Law, Intellectual Property Law Institute) and now is preparing a PhD about music and copyright (supervised by prof. Janusz Barta). He is also a graduate of the Music Academy in Krakow, where he studied piano under Professor Stefan Wojtas and from the Guildhall School of Music and Drama in London, where he was tutored by Martin Roscoe, Charles Owen and Caroline Palmer. In his legal research he focuses not only on copyright law, but also e-commerce, personal rights and protection against stalking.