

Prof. Peter-Tobias Stoll, Chair
Institute for International Law and European Law

Seminar: European Union Sustainable Development: from Concept to Action

The European Union is a strong supporter of the principle of sustainable development – internationally as well as internally. The seminar will explore the legal foundations of the principle and means to implement it both globally and within the EU. It will address the following issues:

- The legal foundations of sustainable development in German, European and international law
- The UN sustainable development goals
- EU trade agreements
- EU and international climate change law
- EU law on emission control and nature protection

Topics for seminar papers can be assigned from 27 July to 14 December 2020. Presentations and discussions in seminar will take place in one or two rounds from November 2020 to Februar 2021.

The seminar is open to law students of specialization areas (Schwerpunktbereiche) II, IV, V and IX, for Erasmus exchange and Master students of related programmes, including those of other Faculties. It requires basic knowledges about German public law, EU law, international law, economic or environmental law and some English language skills. Successful participants will also be afforded a language certificate (Sprachenschein).

Participation in the seminar requires an application by mail to be sent to intecolaw@jura.uni-goettingen.de,

- indicating the name, mail-address, the level of legal and language skills and a short cv,
- the type of examination (vorbereitende Leistung/Seminararbeit/Studienarbeit),
- availability for an introductory meeting and
- preferred time periods for the seminar paper.
- the participation in one of the introductory meetings.

Dates for an introductory meeting and for the later seminar paper will be fixed according to your preferences.

Prof. Stoll