2. How is Chile?

Chile is a “long and thin strip of land”, located in the southern extreme of America, borders with Argentina, Peru and Bolivia.

It possesses a length of 4,200 km approx. Its capital is Santiago de Chile.

Talca is the capital of the VII Region “Región del Maule”. It is located 255 km south of Santiago.

- Boundaries:
  - East : Argentina
  - West : Pacific ocean
  - North: VI Región del Libertador General Bernardo O'Higgins
  - South: VIII Región del Biobío.

According to the “Instituto Nacional de Estadísticas” in Chile, Talca counted with 193,755 inhabitants.

3. Climate

Because Chilean geography is so diverse its climate varies from region to region. Talca presents a Mediterranean climate, with dry season in summer.

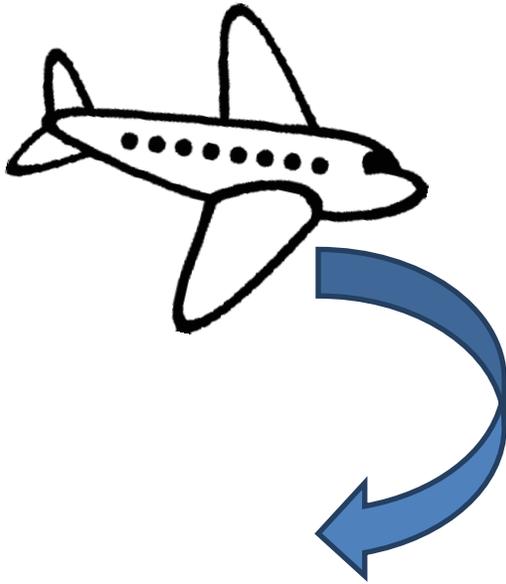

Minimum temperatures are in the order of 12 °C and maximums of 30°C. with rainy winters having from 340 mm to 1200 of rainfall. The temperature in this season reaches the 3°C.

- Summer : Dec. to Feb. (19 °C-30 °C max.)
- Winter : Jun. to Aug. (-2 °C- 11°C max.)

smoggy and rainy

4. How to get to Talca?

TALCA

- After a long flight to Chile, the most probably is that you will arrive to Santiago.
- Talca is three hours from the capital by bus.
- Depending on your time of arrival, you will have to decide if continue your travel to Talca immediately or wait until next day.
- We recommend you to arrive at Talca by 20:00 hrs. because this will allow you to find everything open and ask for any advice if necessary.
- From the Airport exists the possibility to take a bus to the Bus Station (Terminal de Buses) for the companies Tur-Bus and Pullman del Sur (Terminal Alameda).
- The price for this trip is approximately $1,700 CLP (2.72 €).

- Once at the Bus Station, it's enough to ask in any of the companies mentioned before for a ticket to Talca (terminal).
- Normally buses to Talca depart every half-hour. The trip lasts about 3 hours and the price of the ticket depends on the company.
- As reference Turbus charges around $5,500 CLP (8.20 €) depending on the type of seat, Pullman del Sur is a little cheaper and offers a good price/quality ratio.

- Another, less common way of getting to Talca is by train with the State Railway Company (EFE - Empresa de los Ferrocarriles del Estado).
- If you choose this mean, you must take into consideration that the frequency is lower than the one offered by buses.
- The trip lasts approximately 2hr and 30 min. The ticket prices vary between $5,000 CLP (8.00 €) and $10,000 CLP (16.00 €) depending on the chosen service.
- For buses and trains you have the possibility of buying the tickets online and obtain some discount.
- Once in Talca at the Bus Station or at Train Station you will find Taxis that can drive you to your destination

9. Accommodation

Usually the accommodation system for students in Talca is through pensions, the great majority of these are family houses that designate a room for rent to students.

The prices vary depending with the location and services with which they are equipped.

We advise you to check the link of the University's web site <http://pensiones.otalca.cl/>

The University is located in the northern sector of the city, with this information it might be easier to choose or locate an adequate pension.

Please check the city map here: <http://pensiones.otalca.cl/pdf/talca.jpg>

Note: In general the houses are not prepared for the cold weather. Ask your housekeeper about a heater or stove.

Below you will find some contacts that have been recommended by foreign students:

10. Practical Information

The monetary unit is the Chilean peso (CLP or $). Its equivalence to dollars should be consulted nearing your date of travel.

- US$ 1 = CLP *520 (five hundred and twenty Chilean pesos)
- €1 = CLP *669 (six hundred and sixty nine Chilean pesos)

Foreign currency exchange can be performed freely at banks and exchange houses and it is not necessary any special document.

**As of January, 2012*

Health Insurance:

- It is recommended to hire a health insurance before you travel to Chile.
- One option, in case that you already have a health insurance from your home country, is to ask if it is possible to cover you during your time in Chile.
- Other option is to contact some organisms like “Mundo Joven” and hire an International Health Insurance, which normally is for one year.
- In Chile is also possible to hire an insurance but it will take you more time and the requirements vary depending on the company.
- It is also very important to asked for the Insurance conditions that the DAAD needs in order to reimbursed you the money (the DAAD representative in Talca will help you)

Bank account:

If you have a credit card we recommend you to bring it. The ATMs usually accept any card, but you will have to pay a fee for this transaction.

For the students that are planning to stay more than 3 months or for those receiving a scholarship it will be better to open a bank account.

The procedure is relatively easy once you have been enrolled at the University. For more information please contact the program assistant in Talca, Chile.

Commercial Schedules:

- Banks: Monday to Friday from 9 to 14h.
- Money exchange: Monday to Friday from 9 to 18 h. y Saturdays from 9 to 14h.
- Commerce: Big stores and supermarkets open Monday to Sunday from 10 to 22h.

Electrical Current

- The voltage in Chile is 220 volts / 50 Hertz AC.

It is recommended to bring a plug adapter as shown in the picture

Cellular:

- Contracts are minimum for one year.
- The best option is to buy pre-paid cellphones.

Free time:

Even though Talca is not a very big city, it has theaters and cinemas, big stores, supermarkets, gymnasiums, video-stores, bars, restaurants, etc.

Must visit:

To eat traditional dishes at a good price you have to visit the “Viejas Cochinas” located in the bank of the Claro River.
