Publications - Anne Trebilcock, B.A., J.D., Dr. h.c.

“Challenges and opportunities for the ILO in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic” (journal article, working title, forthcoming)

“Alternative means of giving effect to ILO standards - embedding, practical application and feedback functions,” 10:3 Soziales Recht (June 2020) 96-104.

ed., with Jean-Marc Thouvenin, Droit international social, 2 vols. (Bruylant, 2013) (structured around the UN Covenant on Social, Economic and Cultural Rights; author of 14 chapters (e.g. special features of implementation and monitoring, constitutional framework, maternity protection, discrimination and promotion of equality, special categories of workers, right to an adequate standard of living)).

Translations

Workers of the Brasil Verde Estate v Brazil [excerpts of decision of the Inter-American Court of Human Rights], in 3:3 International Labor Rights Case Law (2017) 357-386.

Earlier translations from French and Spanish, ILO Legislative Series; and from Spanish, Andean Report.