

Things to know / things to do

Emergency:

- Ms Dingenotto (room #209, phone -7752)
- Ms Oppermann (room #208, phone -7773)

Opening hours:

- Mathematisches Institut: 6 a.m. - 10 p.m.
- „Lesesaal“ (Library): 8:00 a.m. - 7:00 p.m.

WiFi / eduroam

- eduroam should work, cf. https://projects.gwdg.de/projects/intranet_math/wiki/Mi wlanEN
- Possibly another wifi network (SSID = uni-math) will be accessible, details will be provided during the summer school

System administrator

- Mr Stefan Koospal (room #007, phone -7759)

Events

- Commemorative Plaque for Paul Bernays
The town of Göttingen honors famous characters which had been living or working in this town by commemorative plaques on their houses. Celebrating the centenary of Paul Bernays's return to Göttingen in 1917 as David Hilbert's main collaborator for the study of the foundations of mathematics, there will be an unveiling ceremony of a commemorative plaque for Paul Bernays on Wednesday afternoon at Nikolausberger Weg 43. This ceremony will be part of the PCC workshop, and Michael Rathjen, Leeds, will give a short laudatory speech on Paul Bernays.
- BBQ (27 July 2016, 5 p.m.)

Sports/recreation/excursion

- Jogging: City wall (3.2km)
- Recreation: „Kiessee“ (www.goettingen.city-map.de/03080101)
- Hiking tours:
 - Burg Plesse
http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Plesse_Castle opening hours: daily (except Monday) 11:00 a.m. - open end appr. 10 km / 2 hours per direction
 - Bismarck tower
https://de.wikipedia.org/wiki/Bismarckturm_%28G%C3%B6ttingen%29 opening hours: Saturday/Sunday 11:30 a.m. - 6 p.m.
appr. 3 km / 40 minutes per direction
- OpenAirKino (www.lumiere.de)
- Göttingen culture summer (www.kultursommer.goettingen.de)