

Speakers' List

University of Göttingen - University of São Paulo
Summer School on Investment Law

Prof. Dr. Alberto do Amaral Júnior

Associate Professor of International Law at the Faculty of Law of the University of São Paulo (USP). Ph.D. at the University of São Paulo (USP). Visiting Professor at the Faculty of Law of the University of Yale (USA) in 2003 and 2007. Expert in Consumer Law by the Centre de Droit Communautaire de la Consommation de la Faculté de Droit de l'Université Catholique de Louvain (Louvain-la-Neuve, Belgique). Substitute Member of the Permanent Review Tribunal of Mercosur (2008). Lawyer.

Prof. Dr. Marc Bungenberg, LL.M. (Lausanne)

Marc Bungenberg is Director of the Europa-Institut and a professor of European law and public international law at Saarland University/Germany as well as permanent visiting professor at the University of Lausanne/Switzerland. His main fields of research are European (Common Commercial Policy, public procurement and state aid law) and international economic law, particularly trade remedies, international investment and WTO law.

Prof. Dr. Umberto Celli Júnior

Professor of International Law and Former Dean at the Ribeirão Preto Law School of the University of São Paulo (USP). Professor of the Post-Graduation Programme at the Faculty of Law of the USP and Professor at the Post-Graduation Programme in Latin American Integration (PROLAM) at USP. Master of Philosophy in International Law at the University of Nottingham (1993). Master and Ph.D. in International Law at USP (1990) and (1998).

Henner Gött, LL.M. (Cambridge)

Henner Gött is a research fellow and PhD candidate with Prof. Dr. Peter-Tobias Stoll at the Institute for International and European Law, University of Göttingen. He holds degrees in law from the Universities of Münster and Cambridge and completed his legal clerkship with positions at the German Federal Foreign Office, the German Federal Constitutional Court and two international law firms. His research focuses on international law, especially international economic law, international labour law and international institutional law, as well as on European and German constitutional law.

Dr. Till Patrik Holterhus, MLE., LL.M. (Yale)

Till Patrik Holterhus is an Assistant Professor at the Institute for International Law and European Law at the Georg-August-University of Göttingen, Germany. He received his legal education in Göttingen, Duesseldorf, Galway, Berkeley and New Haven, is a fully qualified German lawyer, holds a Ph.D. in European economic law, a complementary degree in European comparative law, and a master's degree in law from Yale University. After training at the German Supreme Court (Bundesverfassungsgericht) and the German Federal Foreign Office, Dr. Holterhus now teaches constitutional, European and international (economic) law at Göttingen University, and (as a guest lecturer) at Nanjing University, China as well as Paris 1 Sorbonne, France. In these fields, Dr. Holterhus publishes in both, English and German.

Kemil Jarude

Kemil Jarude Lawyer in Brazil and holds a Law degree from The University of São Paulo and a Certificate on Fundamentals of German Law from The Ludwig Maximilian University of Munich. He is member of the Alumni from Ministry of Education Special Training Program (PET - Sociologia Jurídica) in Brazil and from German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) in Germany. Mr. Jarude is also co-founder and Secretary Director of the Latin American Association of International Investment Law and Treasurer of the Brazil - Germany Junior Chamber of Commerce in São Paulo.

LATInv-Law

Latin American Association of International Investment Law

Mariana Monteiro de Matos

LL.M., an attorney at law in Brazil and Ph.D. student at the University of Goettingen in Germany, focuses her research on cultural diversity in international and European law. In 2011, Ms. de Matos earned a Bachelor in Laws at the Federal University of Pará in Belem, Brazil. Invited by the Konrad-Adenauer Foundation, Ms. de Matos moved then to Germany to pursue her LL.M. and Ph.D. degrees at the Institute of International and European Law of the University of Goettingen. Her doctoral research addressed individual and collective property rights in the Inter-American Human Rights System. In 2017, Ms. de Matos was a visiting scholar at the American University Washington College of Law. In October 2018, she will start to work as a research fellow at the Law & Anthropology Department of the Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology. For her postdoctoral research, she will examine the relationship between procedural rights and cultural diversity in European case law

José Maurício Pacheco Júnior

Ph.D. candidate at the University of Goettingen – University of Sao Paulo (Cotutelle). L.L.M. – (Göttingen). Visiting Scholar at the University of Nottingham. Co-founder and President of the Board of Directors of Latin American Association of International Investment Law. Brazilian Bar Association São Paulo (2000) and Paraná (2008). Business Development, Corporate and FDI Lawyer.

BVR, Prof. Dr. Andreas L. Paulus

Andreas L. Paulus holds the Chair of Public and International Law at the Georg-August-University Göttingen. Professor Paulus teaches Public Law, International and European Law and Legal Philosophy. In March 2010, he was sworn in as Justice of the First Senate of the Federal Constitutional Court (Bundesverfassungsgericht). In 2003/04, Professor Paulus lectured at the University of Michigan Law School as visiting assistant professor of law. From 1999-2006, he was assistant professor at the Ludwig-Maximilians-University Munich, where he received his doctoral degree (2000) and also concluded his habilitation (2006). He studied law in Göttingen, Geneva, Munich and at Harvard Law School.

Prof. Dr. Peter-Tobias Stoll

Peter-Tobias Stoll is Professor for public international law at Göttingen University and the Executive Director of the Institute for International Law and European Law, where he heads the Department for International Economic and Environmental Law. He is also the German Director of the Sino-German Institute for Legal Studies of the Universities of Nanjing and Göttingen at Nanjing University. He co-chairs the ESIL Interest Group on International Economic Law and the Study Group on Preferential Trade Agreements of the International Law Association. On occasion, he counselled the German Federal Government, the German Federal Parliament, the UN, the EU and other governmental and non-governmental organization.

Prof. Dr. Catharine Titi

Catharine Titi is a Research Associate Professor (tenured) at the French National Centre for Scientific Research CNRS–CERSA, University Paris II Panthéon-Assas, France. She is Co-Chair of the ESIL IG on International Economic Law, Member of the ILA Committee on Rule of Law and International Investment Law and she sits on the Editorial Board of the Yearbook on International Investment Law & Policy (Columbia/OUP). In 2016, Catharine was awarded the prestigious Smit-Lowenfeld Prize of the International Arbitration Club of New York.

Dr. Geraldo Vidigal

Geraldo Vidigal is Assistant Professor at the Faculty of Law of the University of Amsterdam (UvA), where he teaches Public International Law and International Trade Law. Prior to joining UvA, he was a Dispute Settlement Lawyer at the World Trade Organization (Legal Affairs Division) and a Senior Research Fellow at the Max Planck Institute in Luxembourg. He holds a PhD in International Law from the University of Cambridge, an LL.M. from the Sorbonne Law School, and an LL.B. from the University of São Paulo. He is the Managing Editor of the law journal Legal Issues of Economic Integration and, in early 2018, was added to the WTO Indicative List of Panelists.

LATInv-Law

Latin American Association of International Investment Law

