

Certificate Program Building International Careers

Program Objectives

Students know what "international career" means to them and know their personal resources for the international job market.

Students know their individual abilities, potentials and visions for possibilities of global career perspectives.

Students know how to present themselves successfully in application settings.

Students are prepared to master an application process also in a foreign language (English or German) with confidence.

Students are sensitized and prepared for working in intercultural contexts and teams.