

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen Modul: M.WIWI-BWL.0011: Seminar in Finance, Management Accounting and Sustainability Accounting German title: Seminar in Finanz- und Nachhaltigkeitscontrolling		6 Credits 2 WLH
Learning outcomes, core skills: After successfully completing this course, the students are able to solve theoretical and practical problems in the field of Finance and Management Accounting. Furthermore, the students are capable to present and discuss a complex topic within a group.		Workload: Attendance time: 28 hours Self-study time: 152 hours
Course Seminar Content: There will be written formulations of changing topics, e.g.: 1. Decision Theory 2. Planning calculations 3. Control calculations 4. Value and Risk Management 5. Value and Risk indicators 6. Sustainability Management 7. Behavioral Management Accounting 8. Business Valuation		2 WLH
Examination: Presentation (approx. 50 minutes) and written formulations of the theoretical basics (max. 12 pages) Prerequisite: Regular attendance and active participation		6 Credits
Examination requirements Students are expected to prove their ability to independently prepare an academic paper in the field of Finance and Management Accounting. Students also have to prove that they are able to create a presentation in accordance to their academic paper, give an academic lecture and discuss their topic with the group.
Admission requirements: None	Recommended previous knowledge: B.WIWI-BWL.0085 „ Finance, Management Accounting and Sustainability Accounting“ Lecture “Techniques of scientific work”
Language: German	Person responsible for module: Prof. Dr. Stefan Dierkes
Course frequency: Every winter semester	Duration: 1 semester
Number of repeat examination permitted: Twice	Recommended semester: 2 - 3
Maximum number of students: 20	Proposal for eligibility (study course):	