

Workshop Programme Göttingen, 6-8 July 2017

Thursday, 6 July: Arrival

20.00: Dinner, Welcome Address and Perspectives of Cooperation (Roman Loimeier),
Ristorante Fellini

Friday, 7 July: Workshop (Institute of Social and Cultural Anthropology, second floor)

10.00-10.15: Welcome Address (Roman Loimeier)

10.15-11.00: Introductory round for both guests (foci of research) and team members, short presentations of individual projects by team members

Roman Loimeier: Tunisia

Nadine Sieveking: Senegal

Liza Franke: Egypt

Johanna Kühn: Lebanon

Katja Föllmer: Iran

11.00-11.30: Coffee Break

11.30-13.00: First round of comments, as well as guest contributions from individual research backgrounds, discussion

Mona Abaza: Counter-revolutions and endurance in everyday life

Liza Debevec: Everyday expressions of Islam: Who is a (good) Muslim in Bobo-Dioulasso/Burkina Faso

Mohamed Jouili: Anthro-semantic approaches: Imān and taqwā

13.00-14.00: Lunch Break

14.00-16.00: Presentations and discussions continued

Sandrine Gukelberger: Social movement and non-social movement

Ismael Moya: The difference between “private” and “individual” piety in Senegal

Samadia Sadouni: Social and political context, Sufis and psychology

Samuli Schielke: Refusal, rejection, opposition, counter-

Ramzi ben Amara: The big mistake of the Tunisian al-Nahḍah Party

16.00-17.00: Concluding discussion and final remarks/appraisal
(Patrick Desplat and Alexander Nagel)

20.00: Dinner (Ristorante Fellini)

Saturday, 8 July: Departure

