

Invitation to the SpinCaT Workshop 2012 in Göttingen

Dear members of the Spin Caloric Transport priority program, we are pleased to announce that the next PhD workshop will take place from October 8th - 9th, 2012 in Göttingen.

The invited speakers for this workshop are

- Christian Heiliger, Gießen University
- Andy Thomas, Bielefeld University
- Hubert Ebert / Diemo Ködderitzsch, LMU Munich
- Sebastian Gönnerwein, Walther Meißner Institute

They will give each a 45 minute talk about the fundamentals and actual topics of their research projects within the priority program.

We hope that the workshop arouses your interest and would appreciate your contributions in terms of a short talk (15min + 5min discussion) or a poster.

Please send us the title of your contribution with a short abstract until

Deadline: August 10th, 2012

Our e-mail addresses are:

- Vladyslav Zbarsky: vzbarsk@gwdg.de
- Marvin Walter: mwalter1@gwdg.de

Please let us know, if you have any questions.

Kind regards,

Vladyslav Zbarsky and Marvin Walter
