

Certificate-Programme

"Building International Careers"

Get-to-know-eachother-Bingo

Find someone who....

speaks more than four languages	has traveled through a country without knowing the language (besides Germany)	just started to study in Göttingen in this semester	has completely screwed a job interview
wants to find an internship in Germany	has a great advice on how to convince with your application documents	has already become furious because of German bureaucracy	discovered a foreign cuisine that is better than mum's cooking has a lot of ideas what to do after the studies	is in the last semester of the studies	is studying something that you are interested in in your free time	is actively involved in an intercultural engagement is taking part in the same "Intercultural competence training" as you	is actually learning a language	has lived in more than three countries	has already worked abroad