

Module No.: M.WIWI-BWL.0125		Credits: 6 ECTS
Title: International Organizational Behavior
Course Content: This seminar is an inter-disciplinary examination of the international dimensions of organizational behavior. The course content includes topics such as cross-cultural management, cross-cultural communication, and global aspects of leadership, motivation, team management, and decision-making. The seminar will deal with topics within the field of „Organizational Behavior“ in an international context. The course will enable the students to develop transferable skills suitable for engaging with the challenges of employment/self-employment within the global economy. Comprehensive understanding of the processes of globalization in the 21st century and their implications for the business person. They will gain comprehensive knowledge and skills for successful careers in multinational corporations, non-governmental organizations, and academic institutions.		Course Type: Seminar (2 WLH)
Recommended Prerequisites: Fundamentals of international company taxation (M.WIWI-BWL.0105)	Exam: Presentation (approx. 30 minutes) and written elaboration (max. 8.000 words)
Recommended Semester: 2-3	Cycle: Every summer semester
Literature: Adler, N. J., & Gundersen, A. (2008). International dimensions of organizational behavior. Mason, Ohio: Thomson/South-Western. (Further readings will be announced in the course)	Lecturer: Prof. Jaime Bonache	