Course Design
The seminar can be credited as Module . Students of the following degree programs can apply: VWL MA, BWL MSc, WiPäd MEd and WiInf MSc. The maximal number of participants is 14.

Objectives
The seminar is designed for Master students and deals with topics in the Economics of the European Union. By attending the seminar students will receive an overview upon developments in the field. They will learn how to identify, analyze and discuss the relevant literature. Moreover, students will practice their scientific writing and oral presentation skills.

Contents
The seminar covers several topics in European Economics. We will deal with the consequences of the Brexit, populist and protectionist tendencies in the European Union as well as European Monetary and Regional Policy. Aspects of the European Union’s Trade Policy, Chinese FDI and impacts of migration and refugees to the European Union will be investigated. Moreover, recent issues covering inequality in the European Union, robots and labor market effects, environmental issues as well as aspects of gender inequality in the European Union will be examined.

Time and Location
The seminar will be held on the 31st of January and the 1st of February 2020. An introductory meeting will be held on the 20th of November 2019 at 11:45. I will inform you about the room for the respective meetings in case of acceptance via email, please make sure that you check your emails accordingly.

Application and Registration in FlexNow

Seminar thesis
The written seminar thesis has to be submitted (in electronic form, either pdf or doc, and as two printed versions) by the 24th of January 2020 at 12:00. I will give you further information on how to write a seminar paper (and also for the oral presentations) during the introductory meeting which will be held on the 20th of November 2019. After the introductory meeting I will also arrange individual appointments with the students, where we will discuss the planned structure and focus of your written work.

Prerequisites
Although there are no prerequisites for this seminar, a good knowledge of International Trade Theory, Macroeconomics, Microeconomics and Econometrics is advised.

Requirements
The credits are given for the presentation and for the written paper on the same subject. In the presentation, the students demonstrate their ability to present complex theoretical models and empirical studies. In the paper, students demonstrate their ability to develop a sound research question based on the literature, to synthesize important findings from both theoretical models and empirical studies and to write a scientific paper that motivates the topic, presents and discusses the main arguments from the relevant theoretical and empirical literature in a concise and structured way, and conclude with a critical assessment of the state of the literature. The written paper should have max. 15 pages +/-10%. The students have to prepare for a presentation of approximately 20 minutes.

Please note that all meetings are mandatory!
Your written seminar paper will be checked for plagiarism with a special software. Please make sure that you properly control for correct citation, as a detection of plagiarism will lead to expulsion from the course.

Grading
The grade is made up by the seminar paper for 50% and by the oral presentation and seminar discussion for another 50%. Students have to pass both the written seminar paper and the presentation and seminar discussion in order to gain the credit points.

Credits
Upon successful completion of the seminar 6 credit points can be gained.

Seminar Topics
When sending your application by email, please make sure that you tell me your first, second and third choice of a seminar topic. I will allocate the topic to you as best as I can, but of course I cannot guarantee that everyone will receive his or her first choice topic. If two people are choosing the same topic, I will randomly assign the topic to either one of you. Then the second choice topics will be assigned randomly, and so on. Your assigned topic will be communicated during the introductory meeting. If some of you have a desire to change the topic, you might do so with another student in mutual agreement. Note that the mentioned literature in the following is just serving as a starting point for your own literature research.

1. The Brexit and its consequences
