Betreff: Staff Week French Institute - Université pédagogique d'été IDF

Dear Partners,

The French Institute (IDF) of the University of Orléans is launching a 2-week teachers' training program that will be held in Orleans from Monday 4th to Friday 15th, 2022.

It is designed for French as a Foreign Language teachers to update and explore different pedagogical practices whilst deepening their cultural knowledge of France and the Loire Valley region.

The program will allow the participants to analyze their teaching practices, to experiment new ones, and to explore teaching materials through 4 training modules:

1. Creative teaching practices to approach differently the writing and speaking skills: creative writing workshops and theatre
2. Teaching today's French society and culture with updated materials
3. Leading collaborative and fun activities with digital tools
4. Teaching French as a Foreign Language using the media

The 2-week training will offer a rich cultural program with day trips, visits and activities to explore the Loire Valley (UNESCO World Heritage) and the city of Orleans.

We are attaching a more detailed presentation in French that you are welcome to transfer to your French Department.

This program can be funded through an Erasmus+ grant as a Staff Mobility for Training (STT).

The link to the IMotion page and application form can be found here: <http://staffmobility.eu/staffweek/universite-pedagogique-dete-2022>

Should you have any questions, you can contact amandine.beranger@univ-orleans.fr, course manager at the French Institute (IDF).

We look forward to welcoming you in Orléans!
