

Modulverzeichnis

zu der Prüfungs- und Studienordnung für den weiterbildenden Master-
Studiengang "International Law" (Amtliche Mitteilungen I Nr. 12/2024 S. 135)

---

---

Module

M.GOMIL.001: Public International Law.....	2196
M.GOMIL.002: International Economic Law.....	2197
M.GOMIL.003: International Criminal Law.....	2198
M.GOMIL.004: Colloquium.....	2199
M.GOMIL.101: Environmental Law and Policy.....	2200
M.GOMIL.102: Human Rights.....	2201
M.GOMIL.103: Migration and Asylum Law.....	2202
M.GOMIL.104: International and Commercial Arbitration.....	2203
M.GOMIL.105: Law of Armed Conflict.....	2204
M.GOMIL.106: International Organisations.....	2205
M.GOMIL.107: Law of the Sea.....	2206
M.GOMIL.108: Moot Court.....	2207
M.GOMIL.109: Summer School.....	2208
M.GOMIL.110: Settlement of Disputes.....	2209
M.GOMIL.111: Studies in Post-Colonialism.....	2210
M.GOMIL.112: International Law and Sustainable Development.....	2211
M.GOMIL.113: ICC and International Criminal Tribunals.....	2212
M.GOMIL.114: International Law and the EU and the Law of EU External Action.....	2213
S.RW.1230: Cases and Developments in International Economic Law.....	2214
S.RW.1240: Cases and Developments in Public International Law.....	2215
S.RW.1326: Cases and Developments in International Criminal Law.....	2216

Übersicht nach Modulgruppen

I. Master-Studiengang "International Law"

Es müssen Leistungen im Umfang von 60 C nach Maßgabe der folgenden Bestimmungen absolviert werden.

1. Fachstudium (Grundlagen)

Es müssen Leistungen im Umfang von insgesamt 16 C nach Maßgabe der folgenden Bestimmungen absolviert werden.

a. Bereich A

Es müssen zwei der folgenden Module im Umfang von insgesamt 12 C erfolgreich absolviert werden:

M.GOMIL.001: Public International Law (6 C, 3 SWS).....	2196
M.GOMIL.002: International Economic Law (6 C, 3 SWS).....	2197
M.GOMIL.003: International Criminal Law (6 C, 3 SWS).....	2198

b. Bereich B

Es muss das folgende Modul im Umfang von 4 C erfolgreich absolviert werden:

M.GOMIL.004: Colloquium (4 C, 2 SWS).....	2199
---	------

2. Fachstudium (Vertiefung)

Es müssen vier der folgenden Module im Umfang von insgesamt 24 C erfolgreich absolviert werden:

M.GOMIL.101: Environmental Law and Policy (6 C, 2 SWS).....	2200
M.GOMIL.102: Human Rights (6 C, 2 SWS).....	2201
M.GOMIL.103: Migration and Asylum Law (6 C, 2 SWS).....	2202
M.GOMIL.104: International and Commercial Arbitration (6 C, 2 SWS).....	2203
M.GOMIL.105: Law of Armed Conflict (6 C, 2 SWS).....	2204
M.GOMIL.106: International Organisations (6 C, 2 SWS).....	2205
M.GOMIL.107: Law of the Sea (6 C, 2 SWS).....	2206
M.GOMIL.108: Moot Court (6 C, 2 SWS).....	2207
M.GOMIL.109: Summer School (6 C, 2 SWS).....	2208
M.GOMIL.110: Settlement of Disputes (6 C, 2 SWS).....	2209
M.GOMIL.111: Studies in Post-Colonialism (6 C, 2 SWS).....	2210
M.GOMIL.112: International Law and Sustainable Development (6 C, 2 SWS).....	2211

M.GOMIL.113: ICC and International Criminal Tribunals (6 C, 2 SWS).....	2212
M.GOMIL.114: International Law and the EU and the Law of EU External Action (6 C, 2 SWS).....	2213
S.RW.1230: Cases and Developments in International Economic Law (6 C, 2 SWS).....	2214
S.RW.1240: Cases and Developments in Public International Law (6 C, 2 SWS).....	2215
S.RW.1326: Cases and Developments in International Criminal Law (6 C, 2 SWS).....	2216

3. Masterarbeit

Durch die erfolgreiche Bearbeitung der Masterarbeit werden 20 C erworben.

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen		6 C
Module M.GOMIL.001: Public International Law		3 WLH
Learning outcome, core skills: After successfully completing the module "Public International Law" students will have acquired basic knowledge of general international law; in particular, students will be familiar with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• the historical and structural foundations of international law</li> <li>• the legal subjects of universal international law</li> <li>• the sources of international law</li> <li>• rights and obligations under international law, in particular the prohibition of the use of force;</li> </ul> know the dogmatic and methodological characteristics of international law in contrast to domestic law; are able to apply the knowledge they have acquired to solve relevant case constellations in international law and to critically examine the legal issues raised.		Workload: Attendance time: 42 h Self-study time: 138 h
Course: Public International Law (Lecture)		2 WLH
Course: Public International Law (Tutorial)		1 WLH
Examination: Oral exam (approx. 15 min.) or written exam (90 min.) or term paper (max. 12 pages)		6 C
Examination requirements: Through the module examination, students demonstrate that they have basic knowledge of general international law, master the associated methodological principles and can systematically approach a case of international law and solve it in a justifiable manner.
Admission requirements: none	Recommended previous knowledge: none
Language: English	Person responsible for module: Prof. Dr. Andreas Paulus
Course frequency: each winter semester	Duration: 1 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted: cf. examination regulations	Recommended semester:
Maximum number of students: not limited

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen		6 C
Module M.GOMIL.002: International Economic Law		3 WLH
Learning outcome, core skills: After successfully completing the module "International Economic Law", students will have acquired basic knowledge of international trade and investment law and other elements of international economic law, know about the structures, concepts, principles and understand the underlying economic rationalities as well as the policy implications. They also understand the differences between the EU's common market system and the globale economic order and the role of the EU as an actor in international economic relations. Furthermore, students know about the various mechanisms of dispute settlement and enforcement, including the relevant institutional backgrounds, the procedures and selected case law. They are capable of analysing simple cases in a structured way and to assess trade policy issues systematically from a legal point of view.		Workload: Attendance time: 42 h Self-study time: 138 h
Course: International Economic Law (Lecture)		2 WLH
Course: International Economic Law (Tutorial)		1 WLH
Examination: Written examination (90 minutes)		6 C
Examination requirements: Through the module examination, students demonstrate that they have basic knowledge of international economic law, including the differences vis-à-vis the EU's common market and the role of the EU as an actor in international economic relations, have mastered the associated methodological principles and can systematically approach a simple case and solve it in a reasonable manner and systematically assess trade policy issues from a legal point of view.
Admission requirements: none	Recommended previous knowledge: none
Language: English	Person responsible for module: Prof. Dr. Peter-Tobias Stoll
Course frequency: each winter semester	Duration: 1 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted: cf. examination regulations	Recommended semester:
Maximum number of students: not limited

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen		6 C
Module M.GOMIL.003: International Criminal Law		3 WLH
Learning outcome, core skills: Upon successful completion of the module "International Criminal Law", students will have acquired basic knowledge of <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• the historical foundations of ICL and the development of modern International Criminal Justice</li> <li>• ICL institutions and their precedents</li> <li>• the concept, function goals of ICL</li> <li>• sources and methods of interpretation in ICL</li> <li>• modes of liability in ICL</li> <li>• the international core crimes and relevant treaty crimes</li> <li>• International Criminal Procedure</li> <li>• the application of the above to concrete case situations and a general debate</li> </ul>		Workload: Attendance time: 42 h Self-study time: 138 h
Course: International Criminal Law (Lecture)		2 WLH
Course: International Criminal Law (Tutorial)		1 WLH
Examination: Oral exam (approx. 15 min. ) or term paper (max. 12 pages). The form of exam will determined at the start of the semester.		6 C
Examination requirements: By passing the exam, students prove that they <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• have a general knowledge of ICL,</li> <li>• know sources and methods of ICL and are able to apply them</li> <li>• know and can apply the law on international core crimes and relevant treaty crimes</li> <li>• have a general idea of International Criminal Procedure, and</li> <li>• have the capability to apply the above to case situations/ decide cases convincingly</li> </ul>
Admission requirements: none	Recommended previous knowledge: Basic Knowledge of Criminal Law and International Law
Language: English	Person responsible for module: Prof. Dr. Kai Ambos
Course frequency: each winter semester	Duration: 1 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted: cf. examination regulations	Recommended semester:
Maximum number of students: not limited

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen Module M.GOMIL.004: Colloquium	4 C 2 WLH
Learning outcome, core skills: Upon successful completion of the module "colloquium", students will have acquired a good overview about the sources of international law and related documents and their documentation on paper and online. They are able to search, evaluate and apply such sources. Equally, they have an overview about the academic literature and other sources of information in international law and know about formats, publications and are able to evaluate the diverse texts and to assess their academic relevance. Furthermore, students know how to study, to do research and to write on international law. They have an understanding about English scientific writing and are aware of the demands of scientific good practice in the field.	Workload: Attendance time: 28 h Self-study time: 92 h
Course: Colloquium (Colloquium)	2 WLH
Examination: Oral Presentation (approx. 30 minutes)	4 C
Examination requirements: By passing the exam, students prove that they: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• can search and evaluate sources of international law in accordance with Art. 38 of the Statute of the International Court of Justice</li> <li>• can search and determine the applicability, the content and the legal nature of international treaties, a rule of customary law and decisions by international organizations,</li> <li>• can search for, find and evaluate decisions of international courts and tribunals,</li> <li>• know about major categories of academic literature on international law,</li> <li>• have an understanding of formats and techniques of scientific writing in the area of international law and</li> <li>• are aware of the requirements of good scientific practice in the field.</li> </ul>
Admission requirements: none	Recommended previous knowledge: none
Language: English	Person responsible for module: N.N.
Course frequency: winter and summer semester, on demand	Duration: 2 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted: twice	Recommended semester:
Maximum number of students: not limited

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen Module M.GOMIL.101: Environmental Law and Policy		6 C 2 WLH
Learning outcome, core skills: After successfully completing the module, students will <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• have the knowledge to engage with complex environmental challenges</li> <li>• gain insight into the multifaceted legal frameworks governing environmental protection</li> <li>• possess a thorough grasp of the legal tools and strategies essential for promoting sustainability and environmental stewardship</li> </ul>		Workload: Attendance time: 28 h Self-study time: 152 h
Course: Environmental Law and Policy (Seminar)		2 WLH
Examination: Oral exam (approx. 15 min.), written exam (90 min.) or term paper (max. 12 pages). The form of exam will determined at the start of the semester.		6 C
Examination requirements: Through the module examination, students demonstrate that they have, <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• a detailed and practical understanding of environmental law and policy,</li> <li>• a broad understanding of international environmental law, encompassing various vital topics such as compliance with international environmental agreements, environmental protection and human rights, the use of living and non-living natural resources, trade-related environmental measures, international environmental governance, and liability for environmental damage.</li> </ul>
Admission requirements: none	Recommended previous knowledge: none
Language: English	Person responsible for module: N.N.
Course frequency: each summer semester	Duration: 1 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted: cf. examination regulations	Recommended semester:
Maximum number of students: not limited

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen		6 C
Module M.GOMIL.102: Human Rights		2 WLH
Learning outcome, core skills: In this comprehensive exploration of human rights law, students will dive deep into the study of international human rights instruments and their practical applications. They will scrutinize the legal foundations and principles that underpin human rights protection, examining their relevance in a variety of contexts, from the case law of international courts and tribunals to contemporary global debates. Furthermore, the course engages with specific human rights issues, including the concept of universal human rights, critical assessments of human rights, delineations of the boundaries of human rights, and the role played by non-State actors, including multinational corporations, in advancing the cause of human rights. While maintaining a jurisprudential focus, the program's interdisciplinary approach allows for an in-depth exploration of the complex and currently relevant realm of human rights.		Workload: Attendance time: 28 h Self-study time: 152 h
Course: Human Rights (Seminar)		2 WLH
Examination: Seminar paper (max. 20 pages)		6 C
Examination requirements: Through the module examination, students demonstrate that they have in-depth understanding of various human rights instruments - both at international and regional levels - their structure, interplay and limitations.
Admission requirements: none	Recommended previous knowledge: none
Language: English	Person responsible for module: N.N.
Course frequency: each summer semester	Duration: 1 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted: cf. examination regulations	Recommended semester:
Maximum number of students: not limited

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen		6 C
Module M.GOMIL.103: Migration and Asylum Law		2 WLH
Learning outcome, core skills: This module provides a comprehensive examination of the intricate legal landscape surrounding human migration, with a particular focus on pertinent issues such as climate change-induced displacement, armed conflicts, and persecution. Students will meticulously scrutinize immigration laws, asylum procedures, and international mechanisms designed to protect refugees.		Workload: Attendance time: 28 h Self-study time: 152 h
Course: Migration and Asylum Law (Seminar)		2 WLH
Examination: Oral exam (approx. 15 min.), written exam (90 min.) or term paper (max. 12 pages). The form of exam will determined at the start of the semester.		6 C
Examination requirements: Through the module examination, students will cultivate a profound understanding of the multifaceted legal aspects associated with human mobility. As a result, they will not only possess theoretical knowledge but also practical insights essential for addressing the intricate legal, humanitarian, and social challenges inherent in immigration and asylum matters.
Admission requirements: none	Recommended previous knowledge: none
Language: English	Person responsible for module: N.N.
Course frequency: each summer semester	Duration: 1 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted: cf. examination regulations	Recommended semester:
Maximum number of students: not limited

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen		6 C 2 WLH
Module M.GOMIL.104: International and Commercial Arbitration
Learning outcome, core skills: This module offers students a comprehensive understanding of the multifaceted field of dispute resolution in the context of global commerce. Covering topics such as arbitration agreements, arbitral institutions, procedures, recognition and enforcement, investor-state arbitration, and emerging trends, this module equips students with the essential knowledge and skills needed to effectively navigate and participate in international and commercial arbitration. The module addresses contemporary issues in international and commercial arbitration, such as third-party funding, cybersecurity, and ethical considerations in arbitration.		Workload: Attendance time: 28 h Self-study time: 152 h
Course: International and Commercial Arbitration (Seminar)		2 WLH
Examination: Oral exam (approx. 15 min.), written exam (90 min.), term paper (max. 10 pages). The form of exam will determined at the start of the semester.		6 C
Examination requirements: Through the module examination, students gain hands-on experience in drafting agreements, conducting proceedings, and presenting arguments. By the end of the module, they are well-prepared to address complex international business disputes and emerging challenges in the realm of dispute resolution, making them valuable assets in the fields of international and commercial law.
Admission requirements: none	Recommended previous knowledge: none
Language: English	Person responsible for module: N.N.
Course frequency: each summer semester	Duration: 1 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted: cf. examination regulations	Recommended semester:
Maximum number of students: not limited

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen		6 C
Module M.GOMIL.105: Law of Armed Conflict		2 WLH
Learning outcome, core skills: The module serves as an introductory exploration of international humanitarian law. It contextualizes the historical background and sources of international humanitarian law, its interconnection with ius ad bellum, and the fundamental principles guiding its evolution, such as the principles of distinction and proportionality. Furthermore, the module will address contemporary challenges to the law of armed conflict. This includes issues related to the classification of conflicts, the significance of distinguishing between privileged and unprivileged belligerents, the safeguarding of civilian populations, and the regulation of means and methods of warfare. Special attention will be given to examining the intricate relationship between international humanitarian law and human rights law.		Workload: Attendance time: 28 h Self-study time: 152 h
Course: Law of Armed Conflict (Seminar)		2 WLH
Examination: Oral exam (approx. 15 min.), written exam (90 min.) or term paper max. 12 pages). The form of exam will determined at the start of the semester.		6 C
Examination requirements: Through the module examination, students will gain a a comprehensive understanding of various aspects of the law of armed conflicts.
Admission requirements: none	Recommended previous knowledge: none
Language: English	Person responsible for module: N.N.
Course frequency: each summer semester	Duration: 1 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted: cf. examination regulations	Recommended semester:
Maximum number of students: not limited

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen		6 C
Module M.GOMIL.106: International Organisations		2 WLH
Learning outcome, core skills: This module offers students a comprehensive understanding of the legal framework governing the functioning and interactions of international entities in a rapidly changing global landscape. Students will delve into the intricacies of the legal status, structure, and operations of international organisations, exploring areas such as membership rules, decision-making processes, financing mechanisms, and legal personality. Key international organisations, with a particular focus on the United Nations, European Union and the WTO will be examined to illustrate practical applications.		Workload: Attendance time: 28 h Self-study time: 152 h
Course: International Organisations (Seminar)		2 WLH
Examination: Seminar paper (max. 20 pages)		6 C
Examination requirements: Through the module examination, students will gain a profound grasp of the principles and practices that underpin the operations of international organisations and their role in addressing contemporary global challenges.
Admission requirements: none	Recommended previous knowledge: none
Language: English	Person responsible for module: N.N
Course frequency: each summer semester	Duration: 1 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted: cf. examination regulations	Recommended semester:
Maximum number of students: not limited

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen		6 C
Module M.GOMIL.107: Law of the Sea		2 WLH
Learning outcome, core skills: This module provides a comprehensive exploration of the multifaceted and evolving field of the Law of the Sea. Students will study the complex legal framework governing maritime issues, including territorial waters, international straits, exclusive economic zones, and the rights and responsibilities of coastal states and other actors on the high seas. This course also delves into contemporary challenges, such as issues related to marine resources, environmental conservation, and disputes over maritime boundaries. Furthermore it includes in-depth studies of the jurisprudence of ITLOS and an analysis of international treaties.		Workload: Attendance time: 28 h Self-study time: 152 h
Course: Law of the Sea (Seminar)		2 WLH
Examination: Oral exam (approx. 15 min.), written exam (90 min.) or term paper (max. 12 pages). The form of exam will determined at the start of the semester.		6 C
Examination requirements: Through the module examination, students will gain a profound understanding of how the law of the sea navigates the intricate interplay of legal principles, international cooperation, and real-world marine resource management and conservation challenges.
Admission requirements: none	Recommended previous knowledge: none
Language: English	Person responsible for module: N.N.
Course frequency: each summer semester	Duration: 1 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted: cf. examination regulations	Recommended semester:
Maximum number of students: not limited

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen		6 C
Module M.GOMIL.108: Moot Court		2 WLH
Learning outcome, core skills: In a moot court or simulation game, students take on various roles in a mock dispute resolution or decision-making process in international organisations. Examples include the Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition or the WTO Moot Court organised by the European Law Students Association and the Model United Nations competition. The students draft documents, pleadings or proposed decisions and act as participants in the proceedings, delegates, or as judges or chairpersons of meetings of international organizations. In this way, they will familiarise themselves in depth with international law and its practical application and learn to act in different roles both orally and in writing and learn about the relevant formalities and formats.		Workload: Attendance time: 28 h Self-study time: 152 h
Course: Moot Court (Seminar)		2 WLH
Examination: Oral examination (approx. 30 minutes)		6 C
Examination requirements: Through the module examination, students demonstrate that they have acquired knowledge and skills on how to apply international law in dispute settlement or in decision-making in international organization.
Admission requirements: none	Recommended previous knowledge: none
Language: English	Person responsible for module: N.N.
Course frequency: each summer semester	Duration: 1 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted: cf. examination regulations	Recommended semester:
Maximum number of students: not limited

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen		6 C
Module M.GOMIL.109: Summer School		2 WLH
Learning outcome, core skills: After successfully completing the module " Summer Sschool ", students will have acquired more detailed knowledge about recent developments and research in one the diverse areas of international law and this way broadened and deepened their knowledge and understanding of international law at large.		Workload: Attendance time: 28 h Self-study time: 152 h
Course: Summer School (Seminar)		2 WLH
Examination: Oral exam (approx. 15 min.), written exam (90 min.) or term paper (max. 12 pages). The form of exam will determined at the start of the semester.		6 C
Examination requirements: Through the module examination, students demonstrate that they have acquired a more detailed knowldege about recent developments and research in the thematic area covered by the summer school and that they can put this knowledge into context of their overall understanding of international law.
Admission requirements: none	Recommended previous knowledge: none
Language: English	Person responsible for module: N.N.
Course frequency: each summer semester	Duration: 1 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted: cf. examination regulations	Recommended semester:
Maximum number of students: not limited

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen		6 C
Module M.GOMIL.110: Settlement of Disputes		2 WLH
Learning outcome, core skills: The module covers an introduction to general international dispute settlement procedures, but furthermore contextualize various methods and procedures of dispute settlement in more detail. This includes, inter alia, the International Court of Justice, fact-finding commissions, or non-compliance mechanisms in international (environmental/trade/investment) treaties. The module will also cover as to the interaction between these mechanisms and recent developments.		Workload: Attendance time: 28 h Self-study time: 152 h
Course: Settlement of Disputes (Seminar)		2 WLH
Examination: Oral exam (approx. 15 min.), written exam (90 min.) or term paper (max. 12 pages). The form of exam will determined at the start of the semester.		6 C
Examination requirements: Through the module examination, students demonstrate that they have in-depth understanding of theoretical and practical aspects of international dispute settlement.
Admission requirements: none	Recommended previous knowledge: none
Language: English	Person responsible for module: N.N.
Course frequency: each summer semester	Duration: 1 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted: cf. examination regulations	Recommended semester:
Maximum number of students: not limited

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen		6 C
Module M.GOMIL.111: Studies in Post-Colonialism		2 WLH
Learning outcome, core skills: This module engages students in a critical exploration of Third World Approaches to International Law (TWAIL), which offers an alternative and non-Western perspective on international legal scholarship. Students will delve into the historical context and contemporary evolution of TWAIL, which challenges the traditional Eurocentric and colonial foundations of international law. By examining the intersection of global power dynamics, economic inequalities, and post-colonial legacies, students will gain insights into how TWAIL seeks to address issues such as global justice, sovereignty, development, and human rights from the standpoint of the Global South.		Workload: Attendance time: 28 h Self-study time: 152 h
Course: Studies in Post-Colonialism (Seminar)		2 WLH
Examination: Oral exam (approx. 15 min.), written exam (90 min.) or term paper (max. 12 pages). The form of exam will determined at the start of the semester.		6 C
Examination requirements: Through the module examination, students will acquire a nuanced understanding of the complex relationship between international law and the geopolitical realities of the modern world.
Admission requirements: none	Recommended previous knowledge: none
Language: English	Person responsible for module: N.N.
Course frequency: each summer semester	Duration: 1 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted: cf. examination regulations	Recommended semester:
Maximum number of students: not limited

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen		6 C 2 WLH
Module M.GOMIL.112: International Law and Sustainable Development
Learning outcome, core skills: Upon successful completion of the module "international law and sustainable development", students know, how sustainable development is reflected in one or more areas of international law and developments in terms of the emergence of new norms and jurisprudence.		Workload: Attendance time: 28 h Self-study time: 152 h
Course: International Law and Sustainable Development (Seminar) Course frequency: each winter semester		2 WLH
Examination: Oral exam (approx. 15 min.), written exam (90 min.) or term paper (max. 12 pages). The form of exam will determined at the start of the semester.		6 C
Examination requirements: By passing the exam, students prove that they: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• know about applicable law and its development and concepts and principles in a particular area of international law</li> <li>• and how such rules and principles and developments reflect sustainable development.</li> </ul>
Admission requirements: none	Recommended previous knowledge: none
Language: English	Person responsible for module: N.N.
Course frequency: each summer semester	Duration: 1 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted: cf. examination regulations	Recommended semester:
Maximum number of students: not limited

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen		6 C 2 WLH
Module M.GOMIL.113: ICC and International Criminal Tribunals
Learning outcome, core skills: This module offers students a comprehensive understanding of the International Criminal Court and other International Criminal Tribunals. The module covers, from a comparative perspective, the Tribunals' organization, their jurisdiction, substantive and procedural law. It will also consider relevant case law.	Workload: Attendance time: 28 h Self-study time: 152 h
Course: ICC and International Criminal Tribunals (Seminar)		2 WLH
Examination: Oral exam (approx. 15 min.), written exam (90 min.) or term paper (max. 12 pages). The form of exam will determined at the start of the semester.		6 C
Examination requirements: The module will equip students with the essential knowledge and skills needed to be actively involved in the international criminal justice system and possibly participate in international criminal proceedings. It is expected that students will be well-prepared to address complex international criminal cases and emerging challenges in the realm of international criminal justice, enabling them to make valuable contributions assets in the field.
Admission requirements: none	Recommended previous knowledge: none
Language: English	Person responsible for module: N.N.
Course frequency: each summer semester	Duration: 1 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted: cf. examination regulations	Recommended semester:
Maximum number of students: not limited

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen		6 C 2 WLH
Module M.GOMIL.114: International Law and the EU and the Law of EU External Action
Learning outcome, core skills: The EU is an important but special actor in international relations. The course will explore the EU's status in international law. Also, the role, that international law plays within the EU legal order will be assessed. In addition, the law of external action of the EU will be seen in some detail, including the powers of the EU, its instruments and procedures and delving into various fields of such action.	Workload: Attendance time: 28 h Self-study time: 152 h
Course: International Law and the EU and the Law of EU External Action (Seminar)		2 WLH
Examination: Oral exam (approx. 15 min.), written exam (90 min.) or term paper (max. 12 pages). The form of exam will determined at the start of the semester.		6 C
Examination requirements: After completion of the module, participants should know about the status of the EU in international law, including to know about the relevant rules and principles of international law. Furthermore, participants will know about the role, that the latter plays in the EU's internal legal order, including the doctrinal issues at hand and relevant jurisprudence of the CJEU. In addition, participants will know about EU external action, related competences, instruments and procedures as addressed by EU treaties, legislation and jurisprudence.
Admission requirements: none	Recommended previous knowledge: none
Language: English	Person responsible for module: N.N.
Course frequency: each summer semester	Duration: 1 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted: cf. examination regulations	Recommended semester:
Maximum number of students: not limited

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen Module S.RW.1230: Cases and Developments in International Economic Law	6 C 2 WLH
Learning outcome, core skills: After successfully completing the module "Cases and Developments in International Economic Law" <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• students will have acquired basic knowledge of international economic law, in particular WTO law and international investment law;</li> <li>• know the essential legal foundations and selected decisions;</li> <li>• know the dogmatic concepts of international economic law in their systematic, idealistic and practical significance and their economic dimension;</li> <li>• know the methods of legal interpretation (wording, systematic, historical, teleological interpretation) and are able to apply them;</li> <li>• are able to apply the knowledge they have acquired in solving relevant cases and to deal critically with the legal issues raised.</li> </ul>	Workload: Attendance time: 28 h Self-study time: 152 h
Course: Cases and Developments in International Economic Law (Lecture, Seminar)	2 WLH
Examination: Oral exam (approx. 15 min.), written exam (90 min.), term paper (max. 12 pages). The form of exam will determined at the start of the semester.	6 C
Examination requirements: Through the module examination, students demonstrate that they, <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• have basic knowledge of international economic law,</li> <li>• master the associated methodological principles,</li> <li>• reproduce and analyze known cases with facts and reasons and</li> <li>• can systematically approach a simple case and solve it in a justifiable manner.</li> </ul>
Admission requirements: none	Recommended previous knowledge: none
Language: English	Person responsible for module: Prof. Dr. Peter-Tobias Stoll
Course frequency: each summer semester	Duration: 1 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted: cf. examination regulations	Recommended semester:
Maximum number of students: not limited

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen Module S.RW.1240: Cases and Developments in Public International Law	6 C 2 WLH
Learning outcome, core skills: Through the module examination students, <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• have acquired and deepened their knowledge of general and special international law;</li> <li>• be able to trace the main trends in the development of international law;</li> <li>• have acquired knowledge of international law case law;</li> <li>• have learned to differentiate between the various sources of international law;</li> <li>• have an overview of the various legal subjects and the structure of international law;</li> <li>• know the methods of treaty interpretation and can apply them;</li> <li>• have deepened their knowledge in the area of international dispute resolution;</li> <li>• are able to apply the knowledge they have acquired to solve relevant cases and critically examine current legal issues in international law</li> </ul>	Workload: Attendance time: 28 h Self-study time: 152 h
Course: Cases and Developments in Public International Law (Lecture, Seminar)	2 WLH
Examination: Oral exam (approx. 15 min. ) or term paper (max. 12 pages). The form of exam will determined at the start of the semester.	6 C
Examination requirements: Through the module examination, students demonstrate that they, <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• have in-depth knowledge of general international law,</li> <li>• master selected areas of special international law (prohibition of the use of force, self-defense),</li> <li>• have mastered the associated methodological principles and</li> <li>• are able to systematically approach questions of international law and deal with them on the basis of applicable international law.</li> </ul>
Admission requirements: none	Recommended previous knowledge: none
Language: English	Person responsible for module: Prof. Dr. Andreas Paulus
Course frequency: each summer semester	Duration: 1 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted: cf. examination regulations	Recommended semester:
Maximum number of students: not limited

Georg-August-Universität Göttingen Module S.RW.1326: Cases and Developments in International Criminal Law		6 C 2 WLH
Learning outcome, core skills: After successfully completing the module "Cases and Developments in International Criminal Law" students will have <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• acquired basic knowledge of case law in international criminal law,</li> <li>• have learned to differentiate between elements of crime,</li> <li>• know the relevant current case law on international criminal law,</li> <li>• have an in-depth knowledge of the dogmatic concepts of International Criminal Law,</li> <li>• will be able to apply the knowledge they have acquired in solving relevant cases and critically examine the legal issues raised.</li> </ul>		Workload: Attendance time: 28 h Self-study time: 152 h
Course: Cases and Developments in International Criminal Law (Lecture, Seminar)		2 WLH
Examination: Oral exam (approx. 15 min.), written exam (90 min.), term paper (max. 12 pages) or presentation (approx. 30 min). The form of exam will be determined at the start of the semester.		6 C
Examination requirements: Through the module examination, students demonstrate that they, <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• have basic knowledge of international criminal law,</li> <li>• have mastered selected elements of international criminal law,</li> <li>• have mastered the associated methodological principles and</li> <li>• can systematically approach a decision and analyze and present it in a defensible manner, as well as defend a legally sound position in a discussion.</li> </ul>
Admission requirements: none	Recommended previous knowledge: Basic knowledge of international criminal law (usually acquired by attending the corresponding lecture)
Language: English	Person responsible for module: Prof. Dr. Kai Ambos
Course frequency: each summer semester	Duration: 1 semester[s]
Number of repeat examinations permitted: cf. examination regulations	Recommended semester:
Maximum number of students: not limited		