Requirements/formal criteria

Eligible for application are

- Doctoral candidates who are members of GSGG until their disputation
- The event applied for is co-organised by at least one doctoral candidate of GSGG.
- The event is primarily aimed at doctoral candidates.
- GSGG funds the event with up to 50% of the total costs incurred. The applicants therefore have to seek for further financial support.
- Public events need to be held in Göttingen. Retreats can also be held nearby Göttingen.
- Only one main request per doctoral candidate during the whole doctoral phase (this only applies to approved applications).

Documents to be submitted

- Completed application form with original signatures of the applicant and for doctoral candidates additionally with the original signatures of the supporting supervisors (at least 2 supervisors)
- Project outline including time schedule of the planned event (3-4 pages) and naming of the target group
- Costs projection (broken down by total costs, amount applied for at GSGG, further financing by other parties)

Annotations

- The allowance by GSGG can amount to a max. of €2,000.
 - Approved allowances will be disbursed after the event on presentation of the original vouchers.
 - In case funding by GSGG is granted, the logo of GSGG needs to be used for posters, leaflets, etc.

Refundable expenses

- Traveling and accommodation expenses for external participants
- Costs for the design and printing costs for leaflets and posters
- Conference material (from the Public Relations Department of the university)
- Child care during the event (in cooperation with the university's family service; please note: the family service needs a 4 months' notice, please consider this in the planning process)
- Costs which contribute to communicative accessibility (e.g. fees for sign language interpreters)

Catering and entertaining costs are not refundable.
